

House Sharing?

David's Story.....

David is a 20 year old man. David's parents have just died following a tragic accident and David inherits the family house. It is a big house and David was managing until he lost his job and had to explore other alternatives for how to sustain the costs of keeping the house. He therefore decides to rent 5 rooms in the house and issues an advert in the local newspapers.

Imagine you are David? Whom would you chose as your house mates?

This is the list of the people who replied to the advert:	ranking
A Tunisian mother with her 3 year old daughter.
An artist from Poland.
A couple from Afghanistan; they are Muslim and the wife wears a burka and her face is almost completely veiled.
An engineer from the United States who is trying to get a work permit to work in Malta, together with his Austrian girlfriend.
Two students from Egypt who are studying at the University of Malta.
A doctor from India who would like to work in Malta.
A retired couple from England who wants to immigrate to Malta.
An Italian woman with a sight impairment and who uses a guide-dog.
A nurse from Ethipia who has just been granted refugee status and is allowed to work in Malta.
A Maltese man who has just gone through separation.	